

Considered by many to be New York City's neighborhood of artists, Greenwich Village is the place to be for all things bohemian. Located on the west side of Lower Manhattan, the winding streets and potent energy of this historic area will leave you speechless.

WHAT TO SEE

Washington Square Park

Start your day by passing through the iconic Washington Arch, built in 1895 as a replica of the Arc de Triomphe in Paris. Teeming with artists, street performers, and impromptu chess matches, this historic park is an ideal place to absorb the unique aura of this great city.

1 Washington Square East, New York, 10011

Christopher Park

Spend the afternoon strolling through the brick walkway of Christopher Park. Enclosed by a 130-year-old, wrought iron fence, and featuring statues dedicated to figures as diverse as Civil War soldiers and pioneers of the Gay Rights Movement, this park is beloved by locals and travelers alike.

38-64 Christopher St., New York, NY 10014

The High Line

Elevate your evening by roaming through the High Line, one of New York City's most beloved and unique destinations. Built on a historic elevated freight line, this 1.45-mile stretch offers exquisite greenery, outdoor art, and gorgeous views that will take your breath away.

Gansevoort and Washington St., New York, 10014

WHAT TO DO

Hudson River Greenway

If you're looking to soak up the sun while enjoying a view of the Hudson River, look no further. A favorite destination among locals and travelers, the Greenway features wooden trails, expansive lawns, and is just steps away from the iconic Whitney Museum of Art.

Whitney Museum of Art, 99 Gansevoort St., New York, 10014

MacDougal Street

A legendary center of New York City nightlife, this street overflows with food stands, clubs, and classic taverns. Noteworthy locations include popular cafes that once featured performances by Jimi Hendrix, Bob Dylan, and other famous musicians.

WHERE TO EAT

Casual Dining

Searching for a quick bite at an authentic New York City restaurant? Here are a few options where you can enjoy an inexpensive and quality meal:

- Amelie, 22 W 8th St., New York, 10011
- Blue Hill, 75 Washington Pl., New York, 10011
- Nix, 72 University Pl., New York, 10003

Fine Dining

Are you in the mood for an unforgettable meal? Here are some fine dining options in New York City:

- Shuko, 47 E 12th St., New York, 10003
- Carbone, 181 Thompson St., New York, 10012
- Minetta Tavern, 113 MacDougal St., New York, 10012